REPORT ON CONSTITUTIONAL DAY

The Kamkus College of Law celebrated Constitutional Day on 27.11.2023 to observe the significance of this day. The faculty members with their discretion and guidance of the authorities organized a full-fledged program to built the constitutional spirit amongst the students.

Samvidhan Diwas (Constitution Day) is celebrated every year on 26th November to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India and to honour and acknowledge the contribution of Founding Fathers of the Constitution.

Dr Bhimrao Ramji Ambedkar, who became the first law minister of India in the Congress-led Centre, was appointed as the chairman of the constitution drafting committee in 1947 and was given the responsibility of writing the country's new constitution.

American historian Granville Seward Austin has described the Constitution drafted by Ambedkar as 'first and foremost a social document'.

The constitution is the amalgamation of the list of borrowed features from Britain, Ireland, United States of America, Canada, Australia, USSR, France, Germany, South Africa and Japan.

Few features of the celebration are as follows: -

- ✓ Students were all enthusiastic and cheerful to be proudly celebrating the Constitutional Day/Annual Day as the constitution of our country holds great significance.
- ✓ The event was organized in the Kamkus Ground. The ground is decorated very beautifully with fresh flowers and balloons.
- ✓ The Honourable Guest, Ms. Sandhya Saxena seemed highly encouraging towards all the participants and she enjoyed the event thoroughly.
- ✓ The students of all semesters prepared their performances with complete dedication and hard work under the guidance of their respected coordinators.
- ✓ Student of B.A.LLB 9th Semester performed skit on the achievements of India, Students of B.A.LLB 7th semester performed on gender equality.
- ✓ Students of B.A.LLB 5th Sem Performed Skit on Vasudhaiva kutumbakam which shows all the culture of India.
- ✓ Students of B.A.LLB 3rd Semester performed yoga.

REPORT ON DIWALI FEST

Diwali is a festival of lights and symbolizes the spiritual “victory of light over darkness, good over evil, and knowledge over ignorance. Diwali is the day lord Rama, his wife Sita Devi and brother lakshmana return their homeland after 14 years in exile. The villagers lit a path for Rama, who had defeated the demon king Ravana. The people of Ayodhya lined the streets and their homes with oil wicks in clay lamps to welcome them. Diwali is known as the festival of lights, and depicts the victory of light over darkness, good over evil and so on.

Kamkus College of Law on 7th November, 2023 celebrated Diwali. The college campus was decorated with full of lights, beautiful display of arts and the students has made rangoli in the corridor, decorated it with flowers and light it with diyas. To mark Diwali celebration, the college organised the various competitions. The day started with various Activities such as inter-semester rangoli competition, art and craft making, paper lanterns, best out of waste creation contests were organised in all the classes. The classes were decorated by the students with flowers, dupattas, handmade crafts which was eye catching. Some of the students had also set up stalls for food items in which they prepared food without fire. All these items were mouth-watering snacks such as, sharbat-e- mohabbate, golgappas, chana jor garam, mini raj kachori, paan gulkand laddu, fruit custard, mini bread pizzas, bhelpuri, papdi chaat, nachos with cheese, shakes, sandwiches and many more. There were also a no of placards showing the name of the foods and price tags for the students. The program was started at 10 AM by preparing the food, making the rangolis and handicrafts. The various competition was organized for students on the theme Diwali. Our Principal Sir Prof. Sanjeev Kumar Tyagi and Head of the Department Dr. Seema Singh and Ms. Neetu Mankotia judged the competition and winners were decided by them. Other faculty members also tasted the food and appreciated the efforts made by them. Everybody appreciated these students for generous efforts were made. Then the programme ended with this noble gesture. Various programmes were presented one after the other by the students and certainly it was unique Diwali celebration. The teaching and non- teaching members of the college were also the part of the fest. With these entertainment programmes the faces of all the students were gleaming with joy and laughter. This also had a positive impact on the students, realizing their own creativity and talent coming out and the family of kamkus college of law were happy that we could remove the darkness from their hearts by filling it with light on this Diwali.

The event was coordinated by Ms Neelima Agarwal (Rangoli competition), Ms. Mohini Dobhal (food without fire) and Ms Chavi Choudhary (Art and craft competition).

FAREWELL PARTY REPORT 2023

KAMKUS COLLEGE OF LAW Organized a Farewell party for a Batch Of B.A.LL. B & B. Com LL. B Xth Sem on 26th June 2023. The purpose of the event was to provide a wish of happiness and best wishes to the students to embark their journey in the college. The students were dressed in ethnic and formals and showcased their talents in the fields of dancing, singing, poetry, and stand-up comedy. The participants were made to play a game of picking up a chit, wherein they had to perform an impromptu task allotted to them. The exalting performance of students and their witty nature to perform the fun tasks given to them made the event lively and spirited. This not only tested their sportiveness but also allowed them to ease their nerves. The event proceeded as the students were each given a title suiting their personality or talent. The event was followed by a video message from juniors who shared a special bond with the batch which made their hearts stir. Mhd. Zaki Selected as a Mr. Farewell and Harleen Kaur is crowned as Ms. farewell. All Students cut the cake as their last celebration with the batch. The farewell party successfully concluded with the vote of thanks by Dr. Sanjeev Kumar Tyagi. Lunch was provided by the college to the students.

REPORT ON WOMEN'S DAY

18-03-2024

KAMKUS COLLEGE OF LAW celebrated women's Day on 18-03-2024 (Monday). International Women's Day (IWD), celebrated annually on March 8, is a global day acknowledging the social, economic, cultural, and political achievements of women. The day also marks a call to action for accelerating gender parity. Not only does it celebrate the achievements and progress women have made, but it also highlights the ongoing struggles for equality and the need for continued advocacy and action worldwide. The United Nations has designated the year 2024's theme as 'Invest in Women: Accelerate Progress' with a focus on addressing economic disempowerment, while the campaign theme for this year is 'Inspire Inclusion.' Our student performed Speech on given theme and some students presented poster on the related theme. Most of the Female student participated in the event. Some student performed play on Women empowerment. The event was concluded by the Dr. Sanjeev Kumar Tyagi (Principal). Refreshment was given to the student at the end.

IMPACT OF THE EVENT: Students got an opportunity to celebrate women's accomplishments. It is a day that reminds students of the unwavering efforts of women's rights activists and feminist philosophers in establishing gender equality.
